Government of India
Ministry of Human Resource Development
Department of Higher Education
Shastri Bhawan, New Delhi

New Delhi, 17th May, 2017

To
Vice Chancellors of all the Central Universities

Dear Sir/Madam,

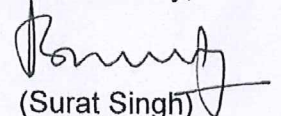

As you are aware, 21st June is observed as the International Day of Yoga. All the Central Universities have already been requested vide this Ministry's letter of even number dated 8th May, 2017 to make necessary preparations for celebrating Yoga Day on 21st June, 2016 in a befitting manner.

The Central Universities may organize the programmes on Yoga in their campuses and an illustrative list of some activities that may be taken up on the day can be:

- (i) Lectures on importance of Yoga;
- (ii) Live demonstrations inviting Yoga experts;
- (iii) Organization of Yoga Camps, Workshops and Seminars on the topic- Yoga and its importance for health;
- (iv) Panel discussions, conventions, presentations;
- (v) Organizing competition for essay-writing on Yoga;
- (vi) Debate competitions and
- (vii) Screening of promotional films/documentary films on Yoga

The list is only an illustrative one and the Central Universities could think of other possibilities. It is also requested to apprise the Ministry of the activities to be undertaken in the University for observance of 21st June, 2017 as the International Day of Yoga.

Yours faithfully,

(Surat Singh)
