Subject: Workshop on "Attitude and Behaviour Modulation through Life Skills

Training" for youth

- .. In pursuance of this objective, the institute is presently engaged in studying the "Evaluation of various strategies for modulating attitudes of the youth". With this aim, the investigators need to conduct series of workshops on- "Attitude and Behaviour Modulation through Life Skills Training" at the DIPR campus, without any registration charges. The participating students would get an opportunity to enhance their soft skills for their career growth in general and for Armed Force in particular.
- .. In return, the participating students would get 'certificate of participation' from the Defence Institute of Psychological Research at the end of the interactive workshops along with take-home souvenirs. The intake capacity in each workshop planned is 40 students, and we are hopeful that we would have active participation from the students of your esteemed department.
